MOVE YOUR BUSINESS

Experience has made history. Looking ahead is the way to evolve.

Tryit s.r.l. was born from the experience of over 30 years of its founders, Salvatore D'Alessandro and Andrea Migliaccio, who decided to merge their skills to create a new business reality.

The professionalism acquired over the years, the knowledge of the distribution and the logistics field, along with a new company structure, are what makes Tryit the ideal partner for those enterprises which want to move their business on national territory through a reliable, effective and efficient system.

With 2 logistic hubs in Campania, the headquarters being in San Marco Evangelista, Caserta, and another two separate locations in Polla, Salerno and Perugia, Tryit is able to offer a tailored service in 24/48h on a National level.

Our territorial coverage is constantly expanding.

From transport to storage, we take care of everything.

Tryit is characterized by its ability to provide a wide range of services to ensure that each client's need is satisfied in every case when it comes to transportation, distribution and logistics.

As a matter of fact, our company has perfected an already strong system that is based on streamlining business processes with accuracy. That consequently enables us to distribute pallet goods throughout all the Italian country, islands included.
